Message from Director's Desk

It is a matter of great pleasure for us to introduce 18th Annual Report of SGVS. After the Independence, regular efforts for various institutions, which made for socio economic development. Many people are developing various programs for regular efforts and various programs are being implemented in the process of social development but desired results are still awaited. Based on monitoring evaluations it has been realized that, without active participation of community, development in its full pace seems impossible.

We believe that in this scenario, role of Civil Society Organization is very significant as effective motivator. In order to achieve different dimension of development CSOs can play a very crucial role to ensure the active participation of community through social mobilization and inspiration as well as by study, technology transfer and demonstration these types of organization can speed up process of development. SADBHAWNA GRAMIN VIKAS SANSTHAN- SGVS established on 1st, May, 2003 on Labor Day and since its inception organization is doing regular efforts with full responsibility and honesty in the following area. Formation and strengthening of community based organizations. Rural Women Empowerment (To avail the Rights to Work, Rights to Food and Rights to information). Strengthening of local self-governance. Maternal and newborn care. Youth skill development under the development program. Policy advocacy on local issues with CBOs and stakeholders. Training on health, education, environment protection, entrepreneurship to make women self-relevant. Awareness generation on Child Right issue in school level. We are thankful to collaboration with PANI Sansthan Faizabad, SATHI UP, White Ribbon Alliance, GDS Lucknow, AALI-Lucknow, Nirantar, ISRN, Guide Star, E-ngo, Action Aid NRHM, AED, Sahyog, Maswa, Comman Health, CHAI, AAI, CRS, Child Line & Child Fund, USHA international & Balrampur Chini Mill Foundation, Milan Foundation, Arushi foundation, VANI and GSS who supported us in this endeavor.
